

NEW CAREER CENTER

The American Academy of Pain Medicine (AAPM) is the medical specialty society representing more than 2,100 physicians practicing in the field of pain medicine.

AAPM members come from a variety of disciplines and work settings and are involved in basic research, clinical research and treatment, advocacy, and public policy.

The membership consists of a distinguished community of physicians, researchers, and allied health professionals with a sustained interest in pain disorders and pain management.

AAPM's Career Center is a new online resource designed to help you recruit qualified specialists in the field of Pain Medicine. The AAPM Web site generates more than 7,000 unique visits monthly. The AAPM Career Center streamlines your hiring process with the following benefits:

- Unmatched exposure for job listings—AAPM represents the largest audience of qualified pain medicine specialists.
- Access to the National Healthcare Career Network—Have your jobs seen by tens of thousands of qualified candidates.
- Easy online job management—Enter job descriptions, check the status of postings, renew or discontinue postings, and even make payments online
- Resume searching access— A paid job listing lets you search the resume database, and you'll receive an automatic email notification when new resumes match your criteria.
